All welcome! Since its Dublin première in 1742, Handel's Messiah has been performed by choirs across the country and far beyond. Handel's ability to capture moods from rage to serenity makes this one of the most enduring choral works of all time. Come and spend the afternoon singing choruses from this ever-popular oratorio under the expert guidance of BSC's musical director, David Gostick. After tea (kindly donated by members of the choir), the afternoon finishes with a sing-through at 5.15pm, to which friends and family are welcome. These days are open to all. Don't let a lack of singing experience put you off - the atmosphere is very relaxed and you can sit alongside members of the choir and other experienced singers.

Please bring your own copy of Messiah if you have one! Otherwise copies will be provided.

Tickets £18 (under 18s £5.00) including tea
Registration from 1.30pm
